*North Coast Athletic Conference game

DePauw returns to action with a non-conference contest at Carnegie Mellon in the first gridiron meeting between the two schools.

The Tigers are 0-2 after last Saturday's 52-14 loss at Wittenberg in DePauw's first-ever North Coast Athletic Conference contest. DePauw lost the home opener on September 8 to St. Olaf by a 31-10 score.

Carnegie Mellon is 3-0 on the season following last Friday's 35-17 victory over Catholic. The Tartans opened the season with a 23-20 win over Grove City before handling Allegheny on the road by a 37-7 score.

SCOUTING CARNEGIE MELLON

The Tartans have blended an impressive running and passing attack on the way to a 3-0 start.

Jared Delello leads the team with 66.3 rushing yards per contest followed by Patrick Blanks with 51.7. As a team, Carnegie Mellon averages 187.3 yards per game on the ground. Quarterback Rob Kalkstein directs the offense which leads Division III with a 261.94 pass efficiency. Kalkstein has completed 27 of 40 passes for 682 yards with seven touchdowns and just one interception. His top receiver is Tim Kikta with eight catches for 288 yards and a 36.0 yard-per-catch average. Carnegie Mellon's average completion covers 25.9 yards.

Defensively, Akwasi Brefo leads the way with 27 tackles with a team-high seven for loss. Robert Winkelman follows with 25 tackles. Brefo and Nick Karabin share the team lead with two sacks apiece, while Liam McGrath leads with three interceptions. The Tartans rank 17th in Division III pass efficiency defense at 84.33.

DEPAUW UPDATE

Off to an 0-2 start, the Tigers faced a coaching change at the start of the week as Scott Srnka took over as interim head coach. Srnka has served as defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach since coming to DePauw prior to the 2011 season.

Justin Murray is scheduled to start at quarterback after missing the Wittenberg game due to injury, but Drew Seaman has played in both games as well. Murray threw for 170 yards and a touchdown in the opener, while Seaman totaled 167 yards with two TDs in the Wittenberg contest.

Taylor Wagner paces the squad with nine catches followed by Bobby Coburn with seven. Amen Galley and Armani Cato share the bulk of the rushing duties with Galley averaging 3.4 yards per carry and Cato 3.1.

On the defensive side, Cody Crook leads the way with 18 tackles followed by Mitch Dwenger with 16. Jake Konovsky and Jack Quinn each have 3.0 tackles for loss as the Tigers rank in a tie for fourth, nationally, in that category.

Punter Paul Simon averages 41.1 yards per boot and ranks 24th in the nation.

Wagner ranks fifth among active NCAA Division III players in career punt returns, punt return yards and punt return touchdowns. Wagner tied a school record in the Wittenberg game with seven kickoff returns.

REVIEWING LAST WEEK

It took Wittenberg just 18 seconds to reach paydirt and the hosts would score on their first five possessions and eight of their first nine on the way to a 52-14 win over DePauw in the North Coast Athletic Conference opener for both squads. It also marked DePauw's first-ever NCAC football contest.

The tone was set early as Taylor Wagner fumbled the opening kickoff and Wittenberg scored on its first play from scrimmage with Desi Kirkman running it in from 11 yards.

DePauw picked up a couple of first downs on its next series, but had to punt. Wittenberg followed with a nine-play, 78-yard scoring drive capped by Brendon Cunningham's 9-yard pass from Reed Florence.

Wittenberg added one more first-quarter score as Florence was on the receiving end of a touchdown pass from Zac Wilson which covered 42 yards and gave the hosts a 21-0 lead with 4:31 left in the quarter.

DePauw quarterback Drew Seaman tossed a 13-yard scoring pass to Kevin Ude just 1:08 into the second quarter which ended a 13-play, 80-yard possession. Wittenberg came right back with a three-play drive as Jimmy Dehnke scored on a 16-yard run to push the lead to 28-7.

Florence made it 35-7 after a 76-yard pass play with Jonathan Stoner before Ude scored on a 1-yard pass from Seaman on fourth-and-goal to cut the lead to 35-14 with just 45 seconds left in the half.

A DePauw personal foul after a 29-yard kickoff return by Wittenberg put the ball on the DePauw 46. Florence teamed with Cunningham for a 40-yard pass and, on the next play, Florence carried for a 6-yard score. That gave Wittenberg a 42-14 lead at the intermission.

Wittenberg scored on its first two possessions of the second half to round out the game's scoring.

DePauw totaled 86 rushing yards led by Eric Wilson's 41, while Seaman threw for a career-high 167 yards on 17-of-38 passing. Bobby Coburn hauled in five passes for 47 yards. Ude was among five DePauw players with two catches and both went for scores.

Florence rushed for 46 yards and threw for 336 on 17-of-20 passing with four touchdowns. Stoner had two catches for 112 yards, while Garth Gilbert caught seven for 83 yards.

Cody Crook led DePauw with 12 tackles and a forced fumble, while Phil Ganser had 10. Jack Quinn paced the team with 2.0 tackles for loss as the Tigers totaled 10 as a team. Spencer Leno led Wittenberg with 11 tackles and a forced fumble.

Wittenberg outgained the Tigers, 508-253 and held a 23-18 edge in first downs.

TIGER NOTES

DePauw Interim Head Coach Scott Srnka

Scott Srnka joined the staff prior to the 2011 season as defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach and was named interim head coach on September 16, 2012.

In his first season at DePauw, Srnka's defense held opponents to just under 290 total yards per game which ranked 30th in Division III and just 101.9 rushing yards which was 21st in the nation. Additionally, the defense forced 18 turnovers.

Prior to coming to Greencastle, Srnka was an assistant coach at his alma mater, Rhodes College, since 1993. He served as defensive coordinator and coached linebackers, defensive backs and kickers. He also served as head strength and conditioning coach, head men's golf coach and assistant track coach.

While at Rhodes, Srnka's defense twice finished the season ranked in the top 25 for fewest total yards allowed including fifth in 2006.

Srnka earned a bachelor of arts degree at Rhodes and majored in art. A four-year starter at strong safety for the Lynx, he was an all-conference selection in his junior and senior seasons.

Following graduation Srnka attended Ohio University where he earned a masters of science in health promotion and disease prevention and was a football graduate assistant coach.

Upon completion of his degree, Srnka coached at Urbana University as the defensive coordinator for one season. He then moved to Baldwin-Wallace College from 1990-93 where he coached quarterbacks, running backs and kickers. He also was the assistant softball coach.
